

PLEASE don't allow cell phone usage on aircraft. We're uncomfortable enough traveling - the added inconvenience of having to listen to other conversations would be too much! I travel alot on business, and like having some downtime from all the constant communication. At the most - maybe only on flights of over 5 hours and then only for a specified period of time? Not on overnight flights. Thanks for listening.